RISK ASSESSMENT

HIGH RISK

Risk	Impact	Mitigation
Creature trapping save/load fails	Critical - lose trapped creatures on reload	Extensive serialization testing, backup data structures
Planar travel breaks existing systems	High - teleportation conflicts	Careful integration, test existing teleport items
Mirror duplication AI buggy	High - duplicates don't attack or behave incorrectly	Separate AI controller for duplicates, state machine
Performance issues with 15 trapped creatures	Medium - UI lag or save file bloat	Optimize serialization, lazy load UI elements

MEDIUM RISK

Risk	Impact	Mitigation
Elemental control Charisma checks unclear	Medium - balance issues	Reference DMG rules carefully, playtest
Vehicle movement conflicts with player control	Medium - input handling issues	Separate control scheme when in vehicle
SR stacking edge cases	Medium - incorrect calculations	Unit tests for all combinations

LOW RISK

Risk	Impact	Mitigation
Missing item icons	Low - aesthetic only	Use placeholder icons initially
Titan weapon Strength checks	Low - easy to implement	Existing ability check system
Divine item interactions	Low - limited player base	Clear tooltips, optional features

CONCLUSION

This implementation plan provides a comprehensive roadmap for adding all 34 remaining major wondrous items from D&D 3.5e DMG to the DND35Prototype project. The plan prioritizes high-impact items, builds foundational systems first, and provides detailed specifications for each item and system.

Key Takeaways:

- 16-20 week timeline is realistic with phased approach
- 7 new major systems required (planar travel, creature trapping, mirrors, etc.)
- Prioritize P1/P2 items for maximum player impact
- Extensive testing required for save/load, trapping, and AI systems
- Artifact-level items (Mirrors, Iron Flask) are end-game content

Next Steps:

1. Review and approve this plan
 2. Begin Phase 2 (Spell Resistance items)
 3. Prototype Planar Travel System (Phase 4)
 4. Establish testing protocols for creature trapping
